Marcie Colleen is a former classroom teacher turned children's book author. She is the award-winning author of THE SUPER HAPPY PARTY BEARS chapter book series with Macmillan/Imprint, as well as picture books, LOVE, TRIANGLE, illustrated by Bob Shea (Balzer+Bray/HarperCollins), PENGUINAUT!, illustrated by Emma Yarlett (Orchard Books/Scholastic) and THE BEAR'S GARDEN, illustrated by Alison Oliver (Macmillan/Imprint).

In 2018 LOVE, TRIANGLE was named a Bank Street College of Education's Best Children's Book. And PENGUINAUT! was voted One Book Colorado for 2019! Celebrations were planned throughout Colorado and 75,000 copies of the book were distributed to every four-year-old in the state!

Marcie is an expert on creating highly acclaimed Teacher's Guides that align picture books and middle grade novels with the Common Core and state mandated standards. She is a frequent presenter at conferences for the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators, as well as a faculty member for Kidlit Writing School, San Diego Writer's Ink, and the University of California San Diego Extension. Her educational work in children's literature has been recognized by School Library Journal, Publisher's Weekly, and the Children's Book Council.

She holds a bachelor's degree in Education of English and Language Arts from Oswego State University and a master's degree in Educational Theater from New York University.

Although she will always be a Brooklynite at heart, Marcie lives in San Diego, California with her husband—artist Jonathan Lopes—and their mischievous sock monkey. Visit her at www.thisismarciecolleen.com.

Praise for Marcie's Books:

The Bear's Garden

A well-illustrated, beautifully written tale of encouragement...
– Kirkus Starred Review

Seamlessly marrying truth and imagination, this charming story reminds readers of the importance of one person's care and as well as the power of community." – Bookroo

an affectionate ode to a community garden. – Publishers Weekly

This charming picture book celebrates the joy of working together to create beauty in surprising places. – A Mighty Girl, (Making an Impact: 35 Mighty Girl Books About Charity and Community Service)

Inspired by the real Pacific Street Brooklyn Bear's Community Garden, this story is a sweet reminder of how powerful communities can be when they come together to create something beautiful. – The Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books (BCCB)

Colleen's text captures the hope, humor, and love of the protagonist. A great addition to the growing urban gardens genre, and a good general purchase. – School Library Journal

Penguinaut!

This empowering story is conveyed beautifully with simple text that's distinguished by gentle wordplay and remarkable mixed-media illustrations. A funny and sharp story with nuance.- Kirkus Reviews

A fun, unsentimental adventure in friendship and independence. - Booklist

Love, Triangle

A happy marriage of funny (and almost nonstop) geometric wordplay ("Circle and Square's friendship was bent out of shape") and Shea's freewheeling cartooning. - Publisher's Weekly

A cautionary tale for young readers, this book gives new insight into developing relationships while bringing new acquaintances into a friendship circle. A solid general purchase for all libraries. - School Library Journal

Sophisticated - Kirkus

A geometric romp full of word play and colorful pop art cartooning. - Bank Street College of Education

The Super Happy Party Bears series

"Colleen has created a series that is funny, charming and upbeat. Bright, cartoon-style art adds to the humor and appeal. Short, fast-paced chapters will keep new readers engaged." - School Library Journal

"The pure delight of the story will easily draw youngsters in and probably turn a few grumpy frowns upside down." -The Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books (BCCB)
